

The Cerro Prieto Job

Nobody in the county will say plainly what took place at Cerro Prieto, so the deputy wrote down what could be proved and left the rest. Sort out who was where before the trail goes cold.

CLUES & EVIDENCE

- Half the county saw Cleto Barraza at Picacho Point.
- Nothing ties the stopped ditch watch to the stolen turn.
- Tule Bottom can be crossed off for the split hide water bag.
- You can rule out the stolen turn for Cleto Barraza.
- Nobody settling the bought silence was ever found with the horsehair snare.
- The deputy struck the common pasture off Cleto Barraza's account.
- Nobody would pin the old ground on Cleto Barraza.
- Bishop Alma Tenney was never once placed at Cerro Prieto.
- Bishop Alma Tenney wasn't carrying the horsehair snare.
- Sallie Doerr never laid hands on the stopped ditch watch.
- The stopped ditch watch tells you nothing about the bought silence.
- Sister Hannah Flake wasn't riding on the common pasture.
- The stopped ditch watch never belonged to Bishop Alma Tenney.
- Nobody riding out of Cerro Prieto was settling the common pasture.
- The deputy struck the split hide water bag off Cleto Barraza's account.
- Sallie Doerr had no stake in the stolen turn.
